Sir

The Imperial pharmaceutical Society instituted in this Metropolis the 21st. September 1818 having elected You their honorary Member, I have the honour to wait on You with the Diploma which You will be pleased to accept with kindness as a proof of the high sense of veneration which this Imperial Society entertain for Your personal worth and the eminent merits You have acquired in the promoting of sciences.

In uniting my individual sentiments with those of the Imperial Pharmaceutical Society I embrace this opportunity to express to You the high degree of regard and esteem with which I have the honour to be

Sir

St. Petersburg
the 14th Jan.y 1820

Your obed.t humbl.e servant
Alexander Nicolaus Scherer

Dr Scherer
of Petersburgh

SCHERER (Alexander Nicolaus v., prof. chem., Dorpat, 1771-1821) A.L.S. (ALEXANDER NICOLAUS SCHERER), St. Petersburg the 14th Jany. 1820, 1 page 4to., £1, 1*s*

Informing his correspondent that he had been elected an honorary member of the Imperial Pharmaceutical Society of St. Petersburg.

LONDON SOTHEBY'S

. . . ' Grove valant 310. ' Daniell 175 ; Marie Davy équivaut à 220 de mes unités ; voilà une compensation au retard que je vous ai infligé involontairement.' . . .

5866 RENNIE (George, C.E., F.R.S., son of the above, 1791-1866) A.L.S. (GEORGE RENNIE), Hol Street, 24th May 1850, to Messrs. Cock, Biddulph & Co., 1 page 8vo., 12*s* 6*d*